

Broadstone Galleria

Dallas, Texas

Broadstone Galleria creates a vibrant community center, combining suburban comfort with an urban sophistication lifestyle of connectedness. This new development encourages creative architecture and distinctive neighborhoods designed for walkability. This project responds to the needs of young professionals with diverse and active lifestyles. With easy access to the nearby Galleria, Broadstone is just steps away from premier shopping, dining and entertainment.

This development achieves an urban response while providing resort style community features such as a shared cyber lounge, business center, fitness facility and community room.
